

ZELAYA BLAMES UNITED STATES

Says Knox's Attitude Could Not Fail to be Disapproved by All Fair Minded People.

CASE OF CANNON AND GROCE

Justifies Their Execution—Anyone Else in His Position Would Have Done the Same.

Salina Cruz, Mexico, Dec. 27.—Declaring that the attitude of Secy. Knox toward him could not fail to be disapproved by all fair-minded people, and that he believed the secretary's judgment was warped by false reports from the American vice-consul at Managua, former President Jose Santos Zelaya endeavored, in an interview to walk to, to justify his treatment of the Americans, Cannon and Groce, as an act that any one in his position would have committed.

Zelaya departed from the Mexican gunboat General Guerrero this afternoon and left tonight for Mexico City in a private car attached to the regular passenger train due in that city Wednesday morning.

"I am going to Mexico City to remain for six months," said he. "If the climate agrees with me, I will send or go for my family. If it does not agree with me, I will go to some place in Europe. I am going to Mexico City to thank President Diaz and Mexican officials for their kindness to me."

The Guerrero, with Zelaya and his party on board, arrived outside the harbor last night, where the boat lay until this morning. A little after 8 o'clock it steamed to the dock, and Zelaya appeared on deck to wave a greeting to a crowd of townspeople that had gathered. He was accompanied by Luis A. Cousin, his former secretary of war; by Robert C. Howe, his friend and former jefe politico, and by several friends.

On board the Guerrero, Zelaya discussed the killing of Cannon and Groce and the note of Secy. Knox. "Cannon and Groce," Zelaya declared, "were engaged by the Conservative party and were brought from Guatemala by that party, which was working hand-in-hand with Cabrera. As they never had any ground for accusing me of any infraction of the treaty adopted by the Central American republics, they attempted to create a cause and began trying to instigate a mutiny and an armed rebellion to force the United States government to intervene."

"As regards Cannon and Groce, no

CUTICURA'S ACTION QUICK AND EFFECTIVE

"I will explain about Kathryn Rishel's cure. She is four years old now. When she was two months, she had tetters or eczema on her face. It commenced on her cheeks and kept spreading till it was almost all over her face. I had a doctor to treat it but it still kept getting worse. I tried many kinds of salve but it only got worse. I had to put the salve on and then start to walk to work. This way till she was over one year old. Then I thought I would try Cuticura. As soon as I began to use them I saw a difference. She did not need to cry when I treated her face. The Cuticura Remedies commenced right away to make it better. I used several boxes of Cuticura Ointment and used Cuticura Soap all the time and her face was healed. She is four years old now and I do not see any signs of the sores. Cuticura certainly did cure her."

"Our little boy had tetters also. He is nearly two. I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment for him and he was soon cured. I used them right away so he didn't get as sore as Kathryn did. Mrs. Blanche Rishel, Clintondale, Pa., Oct. 22, 1908."

For more than thirty years the Cuticura Remedies have been the favorites in tens of thousands of households, for the treatment of eczemas, rashes, itching, irritations and other torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp. Cuticura Soap (25c), Cuticura Ointment (50c), and Cuticura Resolvent (50c), for in the form of Cuticura Resolvent, 25c per box of 60. Sold throughout the world. Foster Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., 125 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass.

"I think Mr. Knox took harsh action against me. I believe his object was that I resign. That is what I have done. I am only a private citizen now, and such I shall remain. "It is not my intention to enter politics again. The report that I had taken command of the government forces was absolutely false. I have not and never intended to do so." Zelaya attributed much of his loss to Harry Caldera, American vice consul at Managua. Of this he said: "The United States government was grossly misinformed through this man about conditions in my country. The vice consul is a member of the Conservative party and an ardent defender of that party's views. With the object of overthrowing my government, he made false reports to Washington, which I firmly believe had much to do with the note of Secy. Knox."

"I have no doubt that these reports led him to adopt the attitude he did toward me. That attitude, I believe, cannot now be but, disapproved by all fair-minded people."

In the afternoon Zelaya was called upon by several Mexican officials, among whom was Juan Brindley, collector of the port, who welcomed the former president with the words: "I receive you like a brother."

Zelaya said he had a good voyage, but that he was feeling badly and had a slight fever. He did not appear ill at ease or excited, and in the afternoon sat for a photograph on the deck.

He left Managua accompanied by Minister Carbajal of Mexico, who escorted him aboard the Guerrero at Corinto.

"I was at perfect liberty at all times and was not intercepted," he said. "I boarded the Guerrero in broad daylight after the afternoon of the 24th. The English minister at Managua offered me conveyance on the sloop Shearwater, then at anchor at Corinto, to any country I wanted to go to, but I preferred to come to Mexico."

Zelaya declined to discuss the arrest of Passos, his brother-in-law, and of Martinez, his finance minister, who is charged with misappropriation of funds of the government.

Zelaya left the gunboat at 5 o'clock and entered the private car, in which there was much baggage.

ESTIADA THANKS RED CROSS SOCIETY FOR AID

Washington, Dec. 27.—A telegram from the revolutionary party of Nicaragua was received today by the American Red Cross society, thanking the society for its work in relieving the distress of soldiers of the government army captured near Rama and now quartered by Bluefields. The telegram signed by Gen. Estrada, said in part: "It is with profound appreciation that we Nicaraguans view the charity and kindness which characterize your work for humanity. The message which brought the shocking news of the distressing condition in which our captives arrived in Bluefields could have but just reached you, ere your directors had given instructions through your state department, for the issuance of supplies for the subsistence of the Zelaya sick and weary."

"Now, by the fortunes of war, under our care the resources of the revolution are sufficient only to provide for its troops, and the many hundreds forced upon us by the surrender of Zelaya's entire army at Recreo would have placed us in a critical position had it not been for your noble action. "Nicaraguans are appreciative and will not forget your prompt relief, and the fervent prayers of its people in thanks for your bounty were offered on Christmas day in our churches. Representing the revolution and personally, I communicate eternal gratitude."

ADMIRAL KIMBALL CALLS ON MADRIZ UNOFFICIALLY

Managua, Dec. 27.—Rear Admiral William Wirt Kimball, in command of the American warships at Corinto, arrived at Managua today on a special train. The admiral was accompanied by George T. Weitzel, secretary of the American legation at Panama, and by two naval aides. The American officers were in uniform, and the object of Admiral Kimball's visit was to pay an unofficial call on President Madriz.

A great crowd gathered at the station and gave them a cordial greeting, after which they drove to a hotel in a presidential carriage. Several American flags were displayed, and although there was a demonstration, much excitement prevailed.

It was rumored that the visit might mean the recognition of President Madriz by the United States. Admiral Kimball, however, was emphatic in his assertion that he called on the president only in his private capacity. He refused to permit the gorgeously-uniformed aide, whom President Madriz had sent to ride on the box of the presidential carriage.

Ernesto Martinez, former finance minister, whose arrest was ordered on a charge of misappropriation of public funds, has escaped to Granada. Joaquin Passos, Zelaya's brother-in-law, is under arrest on a similar charge, while Joaquin Navas, a millionaire from Leon, also is in the hands of the authorities. He is charged with obtaining $30,000 of public money from Zelaya for surrender of the hide concessions, which were improperly granted to him. The arrest of other men enriched at the expense of the country is imminent.

ZELAYA IS IN NO SENSE A POLITICAL FUGITIVE

Washington, Dec. 27.—While the state department declined to discuss the report that Mexico had pledged itself to prevent the return of former President Zelaya to Nicaragua, Central American diplomats here scoffed at the story. It was pointed out that Zelaya is not a political fugitive; that he was not intercepted when he left the country over which he formerly held sway, and that, being now a private citizen, Mexico can have no jurisdiction over him. "Zelaya is free as air," said a diplomat. "He probably will not remain in Mexico for any length of time for there is a regular line of steamers sailing every two weeks from Vera Cruz for Havre, France, by way of Havana. Because of the existing state of affairs, it is not likely that Mexico will insist upon Zelaya enjoying its hospitality any longer than he cares to. His removal from the country in all probability would be received with quiet satisfaction."

ESTRADA ANXIOUS TO REACH AN UNDERSTANDING

Managua, Dec. 27.—President Madriz tonight received a telegram from Gen. Estrada in command of the revolutionists at Bluefields, in answer to his message of Dec. 22, expressing a desire to reach some understanding that would lead to the re-establishment of peace.

Gen. Estrada reciprocates this sentiment and declares his readiness to meet the proposition submitted by the president, half way.

President Madriz, who was elated over the friendly statement, said: "I will immediately arrange a meeting of peace commissioners of both sides to discuss terms. I am confident of a satisfactory outcome."

CHINA WANTS RAILROADS.

Dr. Wu Ting Fang Talks of Needs of Flowery Kingdom.

New York, Dec. 25.—China is eager for railroads, said Dr. Wu Ting Fang, the retiring Chinese minister, but he added that the Chinese want to do the work themselves.

"My people persist in a policy of 'China for the Chinese.' But they feel the need of thousands of miles of railroads, which can progress but slowly as long as we have neither the money nor the experience. I hope to persuade my countrymen that there is a difference between the mere exploiter and the foreign capitalist, who comes with his money to help build up the land."

STOLE HER FATHER'S MONEY TO WIN A HUSBAND

Chicago, Dec. 28.—An unusual story was outlined in the criminal court here today in the opening statement in the trial of eight Italians who are accused of conspiring with a 17-year-old Angeline Schiavone to rob her father, an Italian banker.

In his argument Asst. State's Atty. Fleming told the jury that Francesco Schiavone, uncle of Angeline, three years ago, told the girl to get all the money she could from her father's bank, to bring it to him and he would save it for her and when she had a snug amount she could marry his son Michael.

The girl was employed in her father's bank and it is alleged that her thefts aggregated $20,000 before she was detected. When money from the bank was found in her possession she told her object in taking it and declared that, being crippled, she feared, she decried, she would be unable to marry, and so had tried to win a husband with her father's money.

Michael Schiavone is lame also and five years the senior of his cousin. An conspiracy charge, the banker, Angeline was also indicted and will have a trial separate from the relatives.
